Opportunity #1

Selling Digital Products

The first of these hugely profitable methods is Selling Digital Products.

You're probably wondering "what is a Digital Product?"

Well, a digital product can be software, or a downloadable book, or it can even be downloadable audio.

So for instance, if it was a dog training book that you could access by downloading it online, then that would be considered a Digital Product, because people don't have to receive that product in the mail.

If it was an online video product that taught you how to deliver a great wedding speech, then that would be a Digital Product.

I've got Digital Products in a wide variety of niches, including Personal Development, Dating & Relationships, Music Learning, Health, and many others.

Here's a screenshot of a typical weekly income for me in the Dating For Women niche:

Opportunity #2

Selling Physical Products

The second of these massive online opportunities is selling physical products. This is where you get products out of, say, China at a relatively cheap price, and sell them at a really decent margins online.

I've got some super stealth strategies for boosting your margins that you're going to find out about if you join me in this series.

Here's a couple of my own physical products. A knife sharpening stone:

And a vegetable spiralizer:

Whether you want to be selling things like bracelets, socks, jewellery, private labeled vitamins, cloth nappies, or any of the thousands of niches out there, you're going to learn a lot about that in this particular series.

I've seen newbies get started every day and do extremely well.

In fact, Stanley attended my Advanced Marketers Mastermind last year, and he got started with physical products in May.

He sent me this screenshot from his Shopify dashboard, showing he'd made $68,000 in 30 days!

Stanley Dawejko Jr

"Hey Mark, I wanted to reach out to you and just say thank you for all your teachings and giving me the opportunity to follow my dreams.

You have helped me grow and be the online entrepreneur I have set out to be. I had one goal in mind leaving your mastermind this year and that was to take my online sales to the next level. And this past month I did 68k in sales.

I think I will make my first million in the next 12 months. I just wanted to show my gratitude and appreciation. Hope all is well"

Opportunity #3 Being An Affiliate

The third massive online profit opportunity for 2017 is Being An Affiliate, otherwise known as the “No product of your own” model.

So being an affiliate is where you can promote other people's products, without needing to have a product of your own whatsoever.

If you are at all interested in any one, two or even all three of these models (and believe me, they can all tie in together really well, or you can make an absolute killing by sticking to any one)...

The great news is you'll soon receive some information about some LIVE training webinars over the coming weeks, where I'll be revealing a lot of free information about how this whole strategy works.

I'm doing this as part of my 2017 launch of Learn Build Earn, which is a fully-fledged training software including software and more, and teaches you how to do all three of these business models really really well. So you'll find out more about that soon...

Make sure that you join me for one of my live workshops in the coming days. I'll email you those details shortly.

I'm Mark Ling, and I hope you've enjoyed this short presentation.
